St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

MASS MINUTE.....

November is the month dedicated to praying for the suffering souls in purgatory. Saint Thomas Aquinas said, "By no other oblation can the souls in Purgatory be more speedily released than by the Sacrifice of the Mass." These souls are prayed for in the "General Intercessions" as well as in the Eucharistic Prayer. During this month of November, consider attending Mass often to alleviate the suffering souls in purgatory.

This Mass Minute is brought to you by Divine Mercy Radio.

Pastor's Notes

Fr. Brian Lager

En route towards Jerusalem, Jesus had been busy: he rebuked those who were trying to prevent children from getting near him by saying: "let the little children come to me and do not stop them, for it is to such as these that the Kingdom of God belongs." Then, he engaged in a conversation with a rich young ruler who wanted to inherit eternal life, but who was ultimately unable to follow him because he was chained to his wealth. Finally, as he drew near Jericho, Jesus heard the plea of a blind man and restored his sight, telling him, "Your faith has saved you."

Zacchaeus' story of conversion is a summary of these three stories: in his desire to see Jesus, Zacchaeus is like the blind man and the children. Like the children, however, Zacchaeus is unconcerned with what others may think of him: he climbs a tree without concern for what such silly action may do to his reputation as chief tax collector, and he pays no attention to what others may say with regards to his being a public sinner who wants to get close to a holy man. And finally, unlike the rich young ruler, Zacchaeus offers, without prompting from Jesus, to give half of his possessions to the poor and to repay four times over to all those he may have extorted.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner. He was a mercenary and a thief. No way to deny that. However, his childish enthusiasm and overflowing joy at seeing Jesus, and at being able to welcome him into his home, speaks of a profound readiness to change, to repent, to convert, and to give everything up in order to become a true follower of Jesus. What did Jesus see in Zacchaeus if not a son of God, a creature of the Most High God, a son of Abraham who was ready to come back to the Father's house?

Moved by grace, Zacchaeus turned toward God, and away from sin, and so accepted forgiveness and righteousness from on high. Jesus' divine initiative allowed the work of grace to precede, prepare, and elicit the free response of Zacchaeus. Since grace responds to the deepest yearnings of human freedom, calls freedom to cooperate with it, and perfects freedom, Zacchaeus cannot but respond to Jesus' invitation to dine with him.

Notice that Jesus does not demand a plea for mercy, or a declaration of sorrow on the part of Zacchaeus. Jesus does not even question Zacchaeus about his faith, his level of repentance, his conversion or his desire to be his disciple. Instead, Jesus simply acts with great graciousness, mercy, and kindness. He is compassionate toward Zacchaeus, the public sinner, and does not abandon him or reject him, but offers him the gratuitous gift of life, healing of his sins, and ultimately, sanctification.

The story of Zacchaeus stands as a great challenge for those among us who are often tempted to disregard people as hopeless. It stands as a rebuke to those of us who, having labeled other as "murderers," "terrorists," "racists," "rapists," ignore the fact that Jesus can, and will, save all those who repent and beg for mercy: "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

Jesus' central mission was to seek and to save the lost. For this reason, he took great pains to take the initiative to find those who were lost. It is possible for us to imagine that as Zacchaeus was climbing the tree to see Jesus, Jesus was already looking at him, "seeking" him out so that he could be saved. May our participation in this Eucharist give us the sight of Jesus so that we may not label and condemn sinners, but seek them out and help them find their way back to God. Amen!

A WORD OF THANKS

Fr. Brian Lager

George Gatschet has been sacristan and altar server for 18 years, attending to the priests who have served at St. Joseph Parish. This past week he retired. Fr. Brian, Fr. Ryan, and all the staff would like to thank him for preparing for the 6:30 am weekday Mass for all these years. He has been a tremendous blessing.

We would also like to thank Jim Fieler and Leon Wolf for their services as usher. We appreciate all who perform duties at the Mass. If you would like to be an usher, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, or Reader for Mass, please speak with Kevin Rupp in the office in order set up a training time. If any male would like to take on serving the 6:30 am Mass please let us know.

St. Joseph parish office provides a place to bring in all those religious items that you no longer need or want.

Perhaps those items that belonged your parents that you no longer know what to do with. These items, statues, rosaries, religious reading, candles, scapulars, CD's, etc, are placed in this room to share with others. Those items such as palms and broken items are disposed of in a respectful manner.

Please check out the number of good books we have on the Catholic faith to be given away. Stop in and take a look!

ST. JOSEPH PARISH NEWS

ALL SOULS SERVICE - Join us next Sunday, November 3rd, following the 10:30 a.m. Mass as we meet at the St. Joseph Cemetery at noon for the annual All Souls Cemetery Blessing. The service includes hymns, readings, litany of the Saints, blessing of grave and the reading of names of those who have died within the year from our parishes of St. Joseph, Immaculate Heart of Mary and St. Nicholas of Myra. Please bring your children and share with this this long time devotion.

2020 MASS BOOK - On Monday, November 4th, the 2020 Mass book will open. Please see next Sunday's bulletin for the 2020 Mass Guidelines.

PASTORAL COUNCIL - The monthly Pastoral Council will be on Monday, November 11th at 7:00 p.m. PLEASE NOTE THE TIME CHANGE.

MEALS FOR OUR PRIESTS - If you are interested in sharing your culinary talents by preparing an occasional home cooked dinner for our priests, join the new parish group 'Delightful Dinners'! Contact Lauren McNeil at (785) 342-2745 or email at swk712@hotmail.com to sign up or for more information. This is a great way to serve those who serve us!

Cemetery upkeep for country cemeteries (Antonino Catharine, Munjor, Schoenchen & Severin:

Many former parishioners have loved ones buried in these country cemeteries as well as the towns and cities. It seems it is a situation of “out of sight, out of mind”. Cemeteries do not take care of themselves. All parishes rely on “All Soul Service” donations or memorials. It is truly sad to see a country cemetery in disarray. These country cemeteries are being taken care of by another parish who is keeping the grass mowed above your loved one(s) resting place. You may live in Hays but your parents or grandparents are buried in Hyacinth, Antonino, Munjor, etc.

All parishes would welcome financial help to take care of the cemeteries. Please consider making a contribution to the parish taking care of your family member(s), whether it is St. Joseph Cemetery, St. Severin, St. Catherine, etc. All Souls is a wonderful yearly reminder for you to give annually. When you attend mass in your parish, earmark your envelope for a particular cemetery/parish. It will be forwarded. Your gracious help is greatly appreciated!

Prayer for the Faithful Departed

Good and faithful God,

you have given us so many people in our lives that have given us joy and solace.

On this day we ask you to remember our dearly departed, especially N.

Keep them close to you as we all wait for that day when we all will come and worship in your presence.

We ask this through your Son,

Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HOLY FAMILY ELEMENTARY

Principal - Rachel Wentling, rwentling@hfehays.org
785-625-3131 ~ www.hfe.org

As a whole school Holy Family students, staff, and parents are working to grow in their holy habit of Hope during the 2019-2020 school year. To support growth in this holy habit we focus on specific virtue each quarter. We just wrapped up our first quarter of Joy and kicked off our second quarter virtue of Peace. Students, staff, and parents will begin to focus on the cultivation of Peace in their own lives, classrooms, homes, and community, and it will be a special focus during the upcoming season of Advent. In a world of busy-ness and the rat race, cultivating peace in ourselves and growing it as community directs our hearts and minds toward Christ, the Prince of Peace, and further grows our virtue of Hope in spending eternity in His presence.
