 o'clock and a low Mass at 10:15.

CENSUS CARD.

Please fill in the blanks on the last page of this chronicle and put it into the Collection-basket next Sunday or send it by mail to the Monastery. It is obligatory for us to have an accurate census of the parish and your help in furnishing us with the information as requested, will be much appreciated.

The Offertory Collections show a marked improvement. Many thanks for your thoughtfulness to duty. May many others who fail to give their offering on Sunday be spurred to dutiful action by this appreciative reminder.

 The Junior Senior banquet last Monday evening at the Civic Hall proved to be a very delightfull affair. The meal, served amidst most tasteful and artistic decorations was fit for a King and we common mortals did full justice to everything set before us. After the banquet a very interesting program of songs-musical selections-speeches was rendered. The reading of the Class-will caused much merriment.
