OUR CHRISTIAN MOTHERS' ARCHCONFRATERNITY

They schooled us to service and honor, modest and clean and fair,
The code of their pride of living taught with the sanction of prayer.
Bliss Carman.

For many years past the Christian Mothers' Archconfraternity has been established in our parish. The Archconfraternity has been highly recommended by the Holy See and many saintly spiritual leaders. It has for its purpose the banding together of the mothers in a union of serious thought of their great mission and of prayer for those whose hand rocks the cradle and rules the world.

A light-headed mother is a foolish mother, a light-hearted mother is no blessing. Too many mothers are not fully alive to their God-given mission. An old-fashioned mother means more the mother of deep earnest faith and love for home and the treasures of God, than a mother wearing an out-of-date bonnet and an old-fashioned dress. I do not think that any one of us is ashamed if such a wonderful mother was ours. She shone not in the glittering halls of the social great, nor did she trip the latest fantastic step on the smooth dance floor, but we are glad that her hands never tired, nor that her feet ever grew weary in her love for us.

The welfare of a parish depends not only upon the words of salvation from the pulpit, but to a great extent upon the homes, and there is no home where there is wanting the good Christian Mother.

The Archconfraternity is not alone for the Mothers of the parish whose hair has been robbed of its glow and golden sheen, and whose hands are gnarled by hard work, but its mission is for ALL mothers in our parish. Many Mothers' hands are folded and pleading for the mothers of the world—come and join and let yourself and children share in these countless prayers.

They say that man is mighty
He governs land and sea,
He wields a mighty scepter
O'er lesser powers that be;
But a mightier power and stronger
Man from his throne has hurled,
For the hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rules the world.
William Ross Wallace.

YOUNG LADIES SODALITY

The first meeting in the new year was attended by 62 members. The suggestion was made, and after some consideration, the resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote of those present to begin each monthly meeting promptly at 8 o'clock. The meeting was opened and followed its ordinary course of activities with the exception that after the instruction by the Director, the topic of which was "Christian Sacrifice", the remaining time was devoted to the election of the Sodality Prefects. The election results are the following: Mary Wiesner, Anna Drees, Irene Basgall, Nora Colahan, Melinda Riedel, Florentine Gottschalk, Frances Wasinger, Louise Gross, Julia Colahan, Helen Linenberger.

The Prefects of last year were given a vote of thanks for their faithful services, and the Prefects of the new year received congratulations and best wishes for a successful term of office. The meeting adjourned.

The annual election of Officers was held in December at which the following were elected: Angela Beilman, President; Margaret Mackey, Secretary; Lucy Dreiling, Treasurer.
