"He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." - Jn 16:14-15

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

HEARTLAND PARISH ANNUAL CORPUS CHRISTI EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION

Immaculate Heart of Mary is host to this year's Annual Heartland Parishes Corpus Christi Procession on Sunday, June 23, 2019, following the end of the 6:00 p.m. Mass.

Daughters of Isabella, Knights of Columbus and all the faithful are invited to join us for the 6:00 p.m. Mass and procession out around the Parish and school grounds with our Lord in the most Holy Blessed Sacrament.

Saint Michael the Archangel, Defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking for the ruin of souls. Amen

Pastor's Notes*"A Somino Effect of Virtue"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

When reading the Scriptures, we have to remember that the very media for writing things down back in those days were scarce and expensive. St. Paul would marvel to see a ream of paper that we load into a copy machine. The point is that we are accustomed to being flooded on a minute-by-minute basis with words, words, and more words.

When St. Paul was writing his letters, he had to economize on words to get the most out of his paper and ink. He could do this by being very careful about the words he used. This is one reason his letters are hard to understand—they are so densely written. He would also choose words that he was reasonably sure that his readers would know and understand that would then require no more explanation from him.

Consider today's second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans. St. Paul tell us:

*"Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance,
and endurance, proven character,
and proven character, hope,
and hope does not disappoint."*

We stop and ask ourselves, how does affliction produce endurance? Whenever we have to "cowboy up" and tough out something that is unpleasant, we know that it toughens us up for the next go-around no matter what form it may take.

That endurance produces character is hopefully clear to all of us. Instead of whining and complaining when difficulties come our way, we know that enduring them patiently makes us better people. We saw this on a grand scale with the "Greatest Generation" when the folks that gutted out the Great Depression and Second World War formed the backbone of our country for many years.

What is hope? St. Paul (Romans 8:24-25), tells us, "For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience." So we hope for what we cannot see and only those who have developed character through endurance can act on hope. In Hebrews 11, our author recounts for us the Greats of the Old Testament who struggled and plodded forward in spite of the fact that they "did not receive what had been promised. God had foreseen something better for us, so that without us they should not be made perfect." Their perfection was found in their living out their hope.

So we see how all of these are connected. Christians throughout our history have embraced obstacles, persecutions, and other difficulties as the means of allowing God to perfect us. There is nothing worse than wasted suffering. God can and does bring good out of our adversities if we cooperate with Him.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. That oneness is mirrored for us in the Holy Trinity: one God in three Persons. We are a diverse community with different backgrounds, cultures, realities, and gifts, but we are truly one. Unfortunately, we too often forget this and function as a fractioned body. We needlessly compete against one another, judge one another as opposed to help, and sit silent when our brothers and sisters call out for help.

When we take seriously our stewardship way of life, we see our lives as not truly belonging to ourselves. We want to offer our very existence to God and the Body of Christ. If we find that we are resistant to that fullness of generosity, or we begin to use our gifts in a way that fractures community, we then actively work in contrast to this mark of the Church.

The Church that was established by Jesus and fortified by the institution of the sacraments cannot be destroyed and deprived of Her four marks. The human element may be strained and injured, but not even the gates of hell will prevail against this institution alive in the Spirit. Our actions can either bear witness to that reality or it can bring offense. Let us pray that enough of us will choose the holy way so all the world may see that God is real, Jesus is alive, and we are ONE.
