St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

Pastor's Notes

Sacrosanctum Concilium, The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Vatican II, Series Part 12

III. The Reform of the Sacred Liturgy

21. In order that the Christian people may more certainly derive an abundance of graces from the sacred liturgy, holy Mother Church desires to undertake with great care a general restoration of the liturgy itself. For the liturgy is made up of immutable elements divinely instituted, and of elements subject to change. These not only may but ought to be changed with the passage of time if they have suffered from the intrusion of anything out of harmony with the inner nature of the liturgy or have become unsuited to it.

In this restoration, both texts and rites should be drawn up so that they express more clearly the holy things which they signify; the Christian people, so far as possible, should be enabled to understand them with ease and to take part in them fully, actively, and as befits a community.

Wherefore the sacred Council establishes the following general norms:

A) General norms

1. Regulation of the sacred liturgy depends solely on the authority of the Church, that is, on the Apostolic See and, as laws may determine, on the bishop.
2. In virtue of power conceded by the law, the regulation of the liturgy within certain defined limits belongs also to various kinds of competent territorial bodies of bishops legitimately established.
3. Therefore no other person, even if he be a priest, may add, remove, or change anything in the liturgy on his own authority.

23. That sound tradition may be retained, and yet the way remain open to legitimate progress careful investigation is always to be made into each part of the liturgy which is to be revised. This investigation should be theological, historical, and pastoral. Also the general laws governing the structure and meaning of the liturgy must be studied in conjunction with the experience derived from recent liturgical reforms and from the indults conceded to various places. Finally, there must be no innovations unless the good of the Church genuinely and certainly requires them; and care must be taken that any new forms adopted should in some way grow organically from forms already existing.

As far as possible, notable differences between the rites used in adjacent regions must be carefully avoided.

This document desired to bring about a reform that would be a restoration. It intended to bring from the storehouse of tradition those things that are essential to the nature of the liturgy and reform the liturgy in a manner that continues the sacred traditions the liturgy passes to the next generation. This is why I cannot change the nature of the liturgy, nor can any lay person, or even the bishop in regards to its essential nature. It is our duty to guard and protect the liturgy from any human innovations or inventions in order to safeguard the liturgy from being profaned.

The purpose of the congregation in reforming the liturgy was to hand on the traditions given to us. As we come to know and understand the traditions handed on to us we then pass them on to the next generation. The tradition is an essential aspect of handing on the faith in the Church. The sacraments need to be preserved from any profanation in order to sanctify the people of God and bring them to their heavenly homeland. It is the Bishop of the Diocese who has the duty to enforce and also to be the model of worship in the diocese. Let us pray for our Bishop to be guided by wisdom and fortitude in his decision making for our diocese.

It's all about reconciliation and conversion, not punishment. Relationships are not static adventures but wonderful gifts that continue to develop, grow, change, and mature. We are meant to be social beings, so isolating ourselves from others is rarely helpful. But, because human beings are on the one hand tremendously gifted, talented, and blessed creations, they are on the other also flawed, broken, and sinful. We all need to humbly admit that we are works in progress and not only capable of enriching each other's lives but causing deep hurts and wounds as well. Hence, we always need to be reconciled. We are always growing, changing, and expanding our knowledge of who we are and how we are meant to share life together.

Because reconciliation and conversion are always part of the mix of life, honesty is crucial. Without honesty, we can easily find ourselves living a lie and causing more harm than good. Being able to freely share our feelings, especially those involving pain and hurt, is a charism necessary to pursue and an art to learn. When we are wronged or wrong someone else, we do not enjoy the confrontation that can and needs to come. We are taught to keep our feelings to ourselves, especially when they are negative, and we tend to avoid difficult conversations. Hence, we never really learn how to confront another, successfully resolve conflict, find reconciliation, and welcome conversion. When we hurt or wrong someone, it does not mean that we are a bad or sinful person who deserves only punishment and excommunication. Quite the opposite! We are simply a human person who can make poor choices and sin and can be forgiven. We can restore and deepen the relationship that has been affected and find our way home again.

Jesus clearly wants to avoid shame because it has no purpose in achieving reconciliation and conversion. All broken relationships deserve a chance at reconciliation. Every person has room for growth and a need for conversion. We have to learn to be okay with honesty and not be afraid to hear and process what someone needs to say, even if it is difficult for us to hear. Severing a relationship, both personally or with the church community as a whole, ought to definitely be a last resort and only pursued when all else has failed.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

EZ 33:7-9; PS 95:1-2, 6-9; ROM 13:8-10; MT 18:15-20

Today's readings are all about relationships. Among the many lessons we have learned from the global pandemic is the deep importance of the relationships and communities in our lives. Our families, neighbors, friends and parish family need us, and we need them to be our best selves.

St. Paul gives us simple instruction in our second reading from Romans to guide us in our dealings with others, reminding us what Christ Himself taught: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love is the overarching principal that guides us to be good stewards of our relationships.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus further refines this instruction on good stewardship of our relationships, even when they involve conflict. He says, "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother."

Jesus teaches us to confront the offending person directly and discretely — with the goal of restoring the relationship if possible. This is how we steward our relationships even through rocky waters. Jesus also speaks to us of the power and beauty of community life. "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Christian stewards, God has designed us in such a way that we must help each other on the journey towards heaven. Let us take care to steward our relationships well.

St. Thomas More Society

The St. Thomas More Society is the annual campaign to gather funds for the operations of both of our Hays Catholic Schools, TMP-M and Holy Family Elementary. This crucial fund is what enables the tremendous faculty, staff and opportunities that our students receive in our Catholic Schools. Information to contribute will be sent later this month but with questions please contact Troy Ruda, Advancement Director, at rudat@tmpmarian.org of (785) 621-5427.

Volunteers Needed

With the restrictions in place to safely welcome back our students, many additional volunteers are needed to help serve lunch each day. If you are able to volunteer a bit a time each week or multiple times each week to help in the TMP-M dining hall, please contact Sandy Losey in the Advancement office at (785) 621-5414 or loseys@tmpmarian.org. Thank you in advance!

Attention College Student Parents

PARENTS: We want to keep your student(s) connected with their home parish and engage a community of prayer warriors from St. Joseph's who will be keeping the post-secondary students from our parish in prayer! Sign up your college, technical/trade school, seminary or religious formation student for College Connection. Three to four times a year, we'll send your student(s) a note filled with our prayers and maybe a treat or two to let them know that they are being supported spiritually by their home parish.

Email the following information to Kevin at stjoseph@stjoehays.com:

Student's Name; Name of School ; *Mailing Address (let us know if the name of the school is required for the address); Year in school or graduation date

Thérèse of the Child Jesus

Paul Turner

Thérèse of Lisieux was so diminished by illness during her nine years in a Carmelite convent in Normandy that she even signed some letters as the "completely little" Thérèse. Through meditating on Scripture, she came to realize that it was in her smallness that Jesus could lift her in his arms to heaven. This spiritual path bears some resemblance to the words of John the Baptist: "[Jesus] must increase; I must decrease" (Jn 3:30). Thérèse once called this view "The Little Way."

On entering religious life at the age of 15, she was given the title Thérèse of the Holy Face. Her contemplation of the suffering and glorious face of Jesus developed her spirituality.

In her brief 24 years of life, Thérèse left behind a trove of writings that have inspired many people to follow her path. The Story of a Soul collects her autobiographical works. Pope Pius XI canonized her less than 30 years after her death. Although she never traveled farther than Rome, she is a patron of the missions because of her concern for the salvation of every human. Although she had little formal education, she has been named a doctor of the church.

The collect for her memorial Mass acknowledges that God opens the kingdom to those who are humble, and it asks God to lead the faithful "trustingly in the little way of Saint Thérèse." Perhaps in reference to her title "of the Holy Face," the prayer also asks that "we may see your eternal glory revealed."

Normally, the date of a saint's death is the preferred date for his or her feast. Thérèse died on the feast of St. Jerome, September 30, so the Catholic church observes her memorial on the next available day, October 1.

Paul Turner is pastor of St. Anthony Parish in Kansas City, Mo. A priest of the diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, he holds a doctorate in sacred theology from Sant' Anselmo in Rome. Clip art by Marilyn Dale.
