Those who do not practise what they believe, cease to believe what they do not practise.

Nothing in the way of teaching will make good children if there is not good example in the home.

NO ONE OF US KNOWS WHEN THE WORLD WILL END, BUT OUR BUSINESS IS TO LIVE AS IF IT MIGHT END TOMORROW.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament before the 10:15 Solemn High Mass. After Mass the annual "Corpus Christi" procession will be held. The traditional order shall be observed and the various positions filled as in former years. Proper respect and behavior is expected. Let all who possibly can join in this public token of love for and faith in our dear Eucharistic God.

No services this evening.

Every morning of this week except Saturday, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed before the 6 o'clock Mass and Benediction will be given after Mass.

Friday is the first Friday and also the Feast of the Sacred Heart. High Mass at 6 o'clock, Consecration of the parish to the Sacred Heart and Benediction.

Tuesday at 7 o'clock Mass in honor of St. Anthony and Benediction. Confessions before the 6 & 7 o'clock Masses. Saturday at 6 o'clock Requiem for Mary Klug.

Confessions will be heard Thursday afternoon at 3 and in the evening at 7:30.

Holy Hour Thursday evening at 7:30.

Beginning with next Sunday the late Mass on Sundays will be a Low Mass.

The Pastor wishes to thank the members of the choir for their faithful services, and hopes they will also aid in making the services of the late Mass in Summer holly attractive by their devotional selections.

Next Sunday is Communion for the Guardian Angel Sodality. Monday evening meeting of the K. of C.

The closing exercises of the College were very impressive. The Program rendered to a large and appreciative audience was rendered very well. Nine Graduates received diplomas. The address of the Rt. Rev. Bishop was replete with wisdom and sound counsel.

The annual banquet of our High School Alumnae last Monday was well attended and all its features were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Rev. Fr. Julius was Toastmaster.

The Alumni of our College turned out in large numbers for Alumni Day last Wednesday. The various activities of the day came to a close with a Dinner-Dance at the Civic Hall. The Toastmaster Mr. Bernard Brungardt presented a delightful program.
