Hosana to the Son of David!!
Crucify Him!!

Palm Sunday is always a day of such bitter contrasts. At the beginning of Mass we read the Gospel story of Jesus riding into Jerusalem on the donkey amid great jubilation. For all of His public life He shunned the title of “Son of God.” When St. Peter proclaims, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God,” Jesus does not correct him or deny it, but he does strictly order the Apostles not to say anything about it to anyone.

When the demons identify Him—What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” Jesus response is: “Be quiet!” said Jesus sternly. “Come out of him!” The impure spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.

So for three years, Jesus kept His identity as the Son of God as secret as He could. This is most probably because He knew that His people would think that He was the new King David who would have come to restore the kingdom of Israel to its glory days under Kings David and Solomon. Of course we know that Jesus had a completely different kingdom in mind.

But on Palm Sunday, Jesus dropped all the efforts to hide what He was. He accepted the title of Son of David as He rode into the ancient city of Jerusalem. At this point we are reminded of Jesus admonition from the Sermon on the Plain that we read back in February:

Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.

Jesus knew of the fickle nature of people. It is a daily event in our media-driven culture. We propel people to the highest of heights and cheer them all the way up and then cheer and jeer just as loudly when they fall.

The fact that we begin Mass with the people waving their palm branches shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” and then just a few days later they are shouting “Crucify Him!” tells us all we need to know about the foolhardiness of seeking human praise and adulation. Psalm 112 tells us:

Blessed is the man who fears the Lord, who greatly delights in his commandments! Instead of seeking honor and status from people who will withdraw it as readily as they give it, better for us, as Jesus shows us, to focus on pleasing God rather than fickle humanity.

News From Fr. Fred

St. Joseph Parish has contracted with Betty Johnson & Associates to conduct a feasibility study. The purpose of the study is to determine how best to implement a successful capital campaign to restore our stained glass windows and see to some other deferred maintenance needs on our campus. The vision, with input from many of our parishioners, was created by our leadership, to provide a beautiful and functional worship space for all of us to continue our faith journey.

Initially we have selected a sampling of our church members to personally participate in the study. If you have received a letter, please respond to set up your time to meet. Your input is valuable and important as we go forward.

This is an important project for our parish, and we look forward to everyone’s input and participation. In a few weeks we will provide more information on how the remainder of the membership will be asked to participate.

Fr. Fred Gatschet
