Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. - Mt 14:28-29

GLPI

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

PASTOR'S NOTES

Sacrosanctum Concilium

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Vatican II, Series, Part 9

Fr. Brian Lager

10. Nevertheless the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper.

The liturgy in its turn moves the faithful, filled with "the paschal sacraments," to be "one in holiness" [26]; it prays that "they may hold fast in their lives to what they have grasped by their faith" [27]; the renewal in the Eucharist of the covenant between the Lord and man draws the faithful into the compelling love of Christ and sets them on fire. From the liturgy, therefore, and especially from the Eucharist, as from a font, grace is poured forth upon us; and the sanctification of men in Christ and the glorification of God, to which all other activities of the Church are directed as toward their end, is achieved in the most efficacious possible way.

11. But in order that the liturgy may be able to produce its full effects, it is necessary that the faithful come to it with proper dispositions, that their minds should be attuned to their voices, and that they should cooperate with divine grace lest they receive it in vain [28]. Pastors of souls must therefore realize that, when the liturgy is celebrated, something more is required than the mere observation of the laws governing valid and licit celebration; it is their duty also to ensure that the faithful take part fully aware of what they are doing, actively engaged in the rite, and enriched by its effects.

[26] Postcommunion for both Masses of Easter Sunday.

[27] Collect of the Mass for Tuesday of Easter Week.

[28] Cf. 2 Cor. 6:1

I attended St. John Vianney Seminary in Denver, Colorado. We had a beautiful view of the mountains from the top floor of the seminary, where my room was in my first year. We could watch the sun set behind the snowcapped peaks, but the mountains were always our guide to know which direction we were going in the city. On the weekends some of the seminarians would leave early in the morning to hike the mountains. They would reach the summit and if a priest was with them they would have mass on the top of the mountain.

Our entire Christian life is directed toward the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. It is the summit to all that we do. Each week we set our sights on the peak and turn toward the heights as we seek to worship God in the greatest act of worship on earth. As we return from the peak on Sunday our everyday life is given the grace to seek the holiness to which we are called. Our activity is directed toward God in heaven, all that we do ought to be directed toward God. Mass is the penultimate event in the Christian life here on earth. It is where we get a glimpse of heaven, our eternal home. We must prepare ourselves for proper worship. Going to confession regularly to prepare our soul for the life giving grace of the Eucharist. Coming to Mass early to prepare our soul for this awesome encounter. Staying after Mass in thanksgiving to God whom we have received. These practices allow the Mass to take full effect in our life and gives us the proper disposition for Him whom we will encounter in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Like climbing a mountain, it takes effort. When we summit the peak, we get a perspective of the world we wouldn't ordinarily have. It takes effort to prepare our soul for the Mass and it puts our whole life into proper perspective from the peak of that most glorious worship in which we participate.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Stewardship spirituality invites us to surrender control of our lives to God in grateful recognition of the simple fact that all we have is a gift from Him.

Today's readings illustrate what amazing things can happen when we fully invite God to take charge of our lives by embracing the stewardship way of life.

When we take our eyes off God, we fail to see that all we have is a gift from Him. We lose trust in the Lord and we do not make our lives a grateful response to Him.

Peter makes this mistake in our Gospel passage from Matthew. Jesus sends the disciples in a boat ahead of Him to the other side of the shore. Later that evening, Jesus casually strolls up to the boat, walking on the sea. He invites Peter to join Him. As Peter begins to walk on the water, he momentarily takes his eyes off Jesus to notice the strong wind surrounding them. With that, he sinks.

But what if Peter had not taken his eyes off Christ? What a grand adventure he could have experienced walking on the sea with Jesus! When we take our eyes off Christ, the many blessings He has given us, and the loving way He treats us, we sink, too.

When we embrace the stewardship way of life — letting go of a tight hold over our money, time and talents — our lives become a grand adventure, rooted firmly and gratefully in the God Who always cares for us.

Discerning God's Call: The weekend of August 8-9 is the Annual Seminarian Collection. This collection was previously held in November, but as of this year, has been moved to August and is your opportunity to support the educational expenses of our seminarians. Currently, we are blessed to have eight men discerning a call to the priesthood. The cost to educate each seminarian is a little over $50,000 per seminarian. The total cost to educate all our seminarians is almost $500,000. Every gift to the Seminarian Education fund helps to cover the tuition, books and board and summer ministry expenses for our seminarians. Your generosity is a vital component to the success of these men as they prepare to minister to the needs of future generations of Catholics within our diocese. Thank you for your consideration and kindness.
