

THE ROYAL WAY

Are there days when you are lonely,
When your life seems cold and drear,
When the dark clouds hide the sunshine
And no earthly help is near,
When from those who fondly love you
You perforce must live apart,
And you feel no other presence
Save your aching, bleeding heart?

You whom God so highly favors,
Choosing you to suffer long,
Listen and you'll hear Him whisper,
"Tis the way My Saints have gone!"
Yes, the path is steep and narrow,
Far from flowery fields apart,
'Tis the way that surely leadeth
To the Master's Sacred Heart.

That dear Heart dwells ever lonely
In its Tabernacle home,
Ever patient, longing, hoping,
Yearning there for you to come.
So when sorrow fills your heart, child,
And your pain seems hard to bear,
Go unto His Sacred Presence,
You'll find rest and comfort there.

FAREWELL

No word in the language, perhaps, drops more easily and more frequently from the lips than "Good-by"-parting is so common in life. And yet there are times when saying "Good-by" hurts. I have been called to another field of work far from you and my own dear ones at home. I came to you a stranger, but you soon, by you kindness and devotedness, made me feel much at home. I leave Hays with feelings of regret and shall ever carry with me into the distant mission-field the pleasant memories of my days with you. The people whose spiritual welfare has been placed into my care are far different from you-and much less fair to behold than you. But underneath their tanned and dark skins there lives a soul ransomed by the blood of the God who loved you and them until death, the last drop of Whose precious Hearts' life-blood was freely given in love for them also. Your wonderful faith evidenced in the frequent reception of the sacraments by great numbers of you--your spirit of harmony and your many tokens of kindness are sincerely appreciated by me and I pray Him, love for whom I have striven to keep in your hearts--to reward you for everything. I have been gladdened in the two years among you by your devotedness to your church and the holy things of God. In spite of my many deficiencies, only too well known to myself, this much I can truthfully say, that I have ever carried you in my heart; that your interests and welfare have been mine. I have only one request to the dear people of St. Joseph's before I leave---the mission-field to which I have been assigned is a very difficult one--35,000 souls to care for--the churches have been razed by the cyclone last year and the district is poverty-stricken---my parting wish is that you will remember me and those who will work in the same Missions, often in your prayers. I and my fellow-laborers in Christ will need the power of prayer. I will miss you all and especially the dear children of St. Joseph's--God's and my little ones. Farewell to one and all, may God bless you and me and keep us in His holy love and devoted to Him.

I pray you may give my successor, Rev. Fr. George, who comes from Victoria to Hays, the same cordial support accorded to me

Ich moechte meinen innigen Dank aussprechen allen Pfarrmitgliedern die mir von ganzem Herzen beigestanden sind. Es faellt mir nicht so leicht aus Eurer Mitte zu scheiden. Euer tiefes Glaubensleben und reger Empfang der hl. Sakramente hat mir grosse Freude bereitet. Ich bin berufen worden in ein neues Missionsfeld in Porto Rico. Ich werde immer zurueckblicken auf die zwei Jahre meines Wirkens in Hays als freudenvolle Jahre. Fuer alle eure Liebe und Euer inniges Wohlwollen danke ich von ganzem Herzen. Ich empfehle mich und meine priesterlichen Genossen in Porto Rico eurem frommen Gebete. Vergesst unserer nicht wenn Ihr fleht zu Eurem und meinem lieben Herrn und Meister. Moege der liebe Gott Euch segnen und moeget Ihr in Seiner Liebe bleiben. ---Und nun, Gottbefohlen!

TO ACCOMPLISH GREAT THINGS WE MUST LIVE AS THOUGH WE HAD NEVER TO DIE.
