Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish."

- Jn 10:27-28a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

Pastor's Notes

"These Are the Ones Who Have Survived the Time of Great Distress"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

One of the biggest mistakes any of us can make is to assume that we are somehow unique in facing uncertainties, injustices, betrayals, and suffering. Sadly, these are all part of the human condition and will never change.

St. John wrote his Book of Revelation as a beacon of hope for the ancient Christians who were suffering persecutions for the sake of their belief in Jesus as the Son of God. Anyone who would take upon himself the task of reading the Book of Revelation with the intention of looking for hope on every page would not be disappointed.

We will explore this idea a little more next week as well. But the bottom line is that God has never been welcome in His own creation. The devil was able to tempt Adam and Eve by appealing to their pride and promising them that they could go their own way and do things their way. That was the great attraction of the forbidden fruit.

If God is not welcome in His own creation then clearly neither is anyone who would be His representative. Jesus names this directly in the Last Supper Discourse in the Gospel of St. John 15:18-20: "If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me before it hated you. If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world—therefore the world hates you."

St. John refers to the disease that the believer has in the world as "hatred" in the Gospel and "the great distress" in the Book of Revelation. It takes many forms. Many people have come to loathe the holidays because of one or two family members who have embraced the world's rebellion against God. They know that if they try to stand up for life and/or for marriage and family as instituted by God, conflict will ensue. Others know that at work, especially in the health care fields and in academia, if they challenge the status quo their very jobs can be threatened.

So what are we to do? On the one hand, there is no point in picking a fight just to pick a fight. That only generates more heat than light. At the same time, remember the last of the Beatitudes, "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

It is indeed difficult, demoralizing, and disappointing to have to stand by and watch so much dishonesty and double standards thrown at us by the world. Our two consolations are (1) this is not new. From Old Testament times to today, those who have striven to do God's will have always paid a price. Secondly, we know that if we find ourselves in a tough situation we at least know we have done what is right and have fulfilled God's will.

"What Is a Practicing Catholic?"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

Sometimes it is necessary to re-visit basic presuppositions since what "everybody just knows" is not always as clear as we might think or wish.

To begin, a Practicing Catholic practices the faith. That means they attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation. They participate in the Sacramental life of the Church by receiving the Eucharist and going to confession regularly. They pray regularly (Rosary, read Scripture, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, etc.). These items are basic. No one can call him/herself a Practicing Catholic without embracing these aspects of the faith.

Furthermore, they receive good Catholic reading material in their homes (The Register, Our Sunday Visitor, The National Catholic Register, The Word Among Us, Magnificat, etc.) and try to keep up on the truth of the faith instead of relying on biased and bigoted reports from the secular media. They participate in the life of the parish by volunteering to be on committees and commissions, helping at Mass by reading, helping distribute Holy Communion, ushering, etc. They come to parish activities such as the Thanksgiving Dinner, the Lenten Soup and Bread Suppers, helping decorate the Church for the various celebrations such as Christmas and Easter. There are many things too numerous to list here. While the things in the first paragraph are basic and really non-negotiable, people can and do pick and choose from the items in this second paragraph.

So why all this now? Again, sometimes what we assume is common knowledge is not as common as we first thought. We need to have a universally agreed upon definition of what it means to be a Practicing Catholic, especially when people approach the parish wanting to receive the Sacrament of Matrimony or desiring to be baptismal godparents or Confirmation sponsors.

While space does not allow, suffice it to say for now that many people have no clue as to what it means to be a Practicing Catholic. It is not uncommon for people to want to be sponsors, godparents, or to receive other Sacraments who do not practice the faith at all. They simply see it as a function to stand in front of the church at a Baptism or wedding, and go to a party afterwards with no past practice or future intention of practicing the faith. This only serves to weaken the parish and the Church in general.

Serving as a sponsor or godparent is an opportunity to re-affirm one's own faith and share it with others. This can only happen if said sponsor has faith to affirm and share in the first place.

St. Joseph Parish Welcomes the Hays Hispanic Community

At 12:00 noon on Sunday, May 19th, Fr. Fred will celebrate the Spanish Mass here at St. Joseph Parish. Thomas More Prep-Marian is having the annual graduation Mass at Immaculate Heart at 11:30 am on that day. Since the Spanish Mass is always at noon, like last year, we are having the Spanish Mass here so that TMP can use IHM for the graduation Mass.

MASS MINUTE.....

Did you know that during the holy Mass the mystery of the incarnation is relived? In the words of Saint John Damascene, "The Holy Spirit overshadows the priest and operates in the elements which He effected in the womb of the Virgin Mary." Christ performs a great miracle in every Mass as he did when he became man more than 2000 years ago. No wonder we bow profoundly during the Profession of Faith when we say, "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man."

This Mass Minute is brought to you by Divine Mercy Radio.

RICE BOWLS

You still have time to turn in your Rice Bowls this coming week so that we may send the money to the Diocese. Please drop these off at the parish office, this includes the CAMPUS CENTER.

St. Joseph parish office provides a place to bring in all those religious items that you no longer need or want.

Perhaps those items that belonged to your parents that you no longer know what to do with. These items, statues, rosaries, religious reading, candles, scapulars, CD's, etc, are placed in this room to share with others. Those items such as palms and broken items are disposed of in a respectful manner. You may also bring in your old palms!

Stop by and bring some unwanted items and see what treasures we have to offer!

Saint Louis de Montfort says:
"Mary is the quickest, shortest, and easiest path to Jesus."

family MATTERS THE MONTH OF MAY

Devotion to the Blessed Mother is important for the salvation and sanctification of everyone, but it is especially crucial for our youth to be accustomed to giving her their love, honor and service, and to learn how to imitate her virtues. Children, teenagers and young adults alike, should be taught the significance that Marian devotion should have in every aspect of their lives.

May is the Month of Mary

St. Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort in his classic, True Devotion to Mary, wrote, "All true children of God have God for their father and Mary for their mother." Children, even more so than adults, find it natural to look with confidence to their mother, to entrust themselves to her, and to confide all their cares, worries and troubles to her maternal solicitude. One of the greatest tragedies of our day is the large number of children who have never known the Blessed Mother and who have never even had the opportunity of learning that they have a loving Mother in Heaven to whom they can go with all their daily concerns. If children grow up knowing Our Lady, cultivating the habit of flying to her arms for refuge, and striving to imitate her holiness of life, they will lay a secure foundation upon which they can build the rest of their lives.

For more info visit <https://www.catholiccompany.com/getfed/imitating-marys-10-amazing-virtues-6169>

Let us learn the ten amazing VIRTUES of Mary and beg Our Lady for the grace to put them into practice.

ARDENT CHARITY: Every action that Mary performed for those around her was done out of love for the Lord.
Be like the Blessed Mother and take on the disposition of love for those around you by bringing Jesus to them, the true and perfect lover.

PROFOUND HUMILITY: Mary perfectly conformed herself to God's Will. She saw herself as God saw her:
nothing more, nothing less.

See yourself as God sees you! Accept compliments gracefully and quietly, and don't be embarrassed to have made mistakes in front of others.

UNIVERSAL MORTIFICATION: Mary died to herself from the moment she said, "Not my will but Yours be done." She continued this throughout her entire life, continually dying to herself and totally uniting herself to her Son.

Make sacrifices and offer them up for the great good of someone else.

CONSTANT MENTAL PRAYER: Mary's entire life was a prayer, due to her constantly placing herself in the presence of the Lord, every moment of her life.

Praise God. Make time for silence, for thanking Him, and for asking help to do His Will. Bring Christ into every little thing, offering up all your thoughts, words, actions, joys, and sorrows.

BLIND OBEDIENCE: Mary was able to confidently give her fiat at the moment of the Annunciation, and also in every circumstance after that.

We can believe and trust that God's plan for us is good and loving. This is really hard, especially at times when life is uncertain, but you are not alone in the chaos. He is right there with you.

DIVINE WISDOM: Mary was able to see the beauty of God's will in every moment. She didn't run to others first; she always conversed with the Lord first, so that she could embrace His Will.

Ask the Holy Spirit for the wisdom to see things through the eyes of Christ and not your own. Ask Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, to pray for you!

SURPASSING PURITY: Everything in Mary was of God. Her mind and heart were pure. She lived her life with unity of purpose, seeking only to love and honor with all her heart, all her mind, and all her soul.

Live a life full of prayer and frequent the Sacraments. Strive to keep your mind pure and focused on heavenly things instead of things of this world.

ANGELIC SWEETNESS: Mary radiated joy and peace to everyone she encountered.

We can open our hearts to the grace that is available to us, show gratitude for God's blessings. We can smile, and be kind, friendly, and sensitive towards others needs—putting their needs before our own.

LIVELY FAITH: Mary completely submitted herself to God in an energetic way. She joyfully surrendered herself to the Lord.

Faith is a gift from God! To receive a gift, we must be in communion with the Giver. Choose to trust Him and practice receiving His gifts with humble, open palms.

HEROIC PATIENCE: Mary gave her fiat, her "yes" to Christ. Mary's patience culminated at the foot of her Son's cross, where she truly became a martyr through her patient and complete suffering in union with Christ.

Unite your sufferings with the sufferings of Our Lord and Our Lady of Sorrows. Pray for the gift of perseverance and cultivate silence in your life and in your heart.

Living the virtues of Mary may seem overwhelming. Don't get discouraged. With your family, choose one virtue at a time; maybe it's one that you really feel drawn to or just one that you all really struggle with. One of the greatest things about Mary is that she is not just someone from history; she is still our Mother today and she is always praying for us, supporting us, and leading us closer to her Son. She is with you every step of the way, call upon her, ask her for guidance and encouragement.

Lastly, don't be afraid to allow her to love YOU. As St. Maximilian Kolbe said, "Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin Mary too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."

GOSPEL REFLECTION

We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our finances. Sometimes the challenges are of our own making. Perhaps we've developed patterns of sin in our personal lives or our family relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps more poignantly, how do we now view God's relationship to us?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' words to us are encouraging ones. "No one can take them out of my hand." Did you catch that? In case you didn't, Jesus reemphasizes the point again a few verses later. "My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand." God's grip of providential care and mercy is so strong that nothing can separate us. We might think things take us out of God's hand - life circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith - but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father's hand, and we can't take ourselves out! We can't remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance.

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might take us from God's hand, we can turn back to Him. God is always inviting us to follow Him and to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

EVERYDAY STEWARSHIP

When I was little, I would always cling to the same routine each night before going to bed. I would say to my parents, "Good night." They would respond, "Good night." I then would say, "See you tomorrow, okay?" I would await their response, and if they did not respond, I would say it again louder, "See you tomorrow, okay?" I somehow felt that if they did not assure me that I would see them tomorrow, it would possibly not happen. What would happen to me if I awoke and no one was there? It seems silly now, but to a small boy, it was very serious.

In our lives, many of us have somehow bought into the notion that there is so much in the world that can take us away from God. We believe that worldly values, immorality, or evil itself can take us away from God's love and protection. But there are few greater lies than this. The reality is that if we find ourselves far away from God, the only force that carried us away was our own choir.

In John's Gospel, Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me...No one can take them out of my hand." Yes, we are tempted at every side, but no temptation can take us away from him. Unfortunately, sometimes after initial choices, we find ourselves in addiction or dependency, making our reconciliation with God impossible without the help of friends and loved ones. But make no mistake, no one or nothing can take those who are His sheep away from God.

When you think about this, you realize the importance of your actions. The power of your stewardship is great, because by utilizing your gifts, you determine if you will draw closer to or wander away from God. The world can't do that. The devil can't do that, nor can the wishful words of a little boy in the night.

Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness, or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work. 2 Cor 9:6-8

Comeau Campus Center
